

2017 KABBALAH RESIDENTIAL SUMMER SCHOOL
HAWKWOOD COLLEGE, STROUD, GLOUCESTERSHIRE, ENGLAND

Tuesday August 29th to Friday September 1st 2017 (lunchtime)
Conducted by Kurt Browne and Joanna Lapage-Browne

After over 30 years of running Summer Schools our teacher Z'ev ben Shimon Halevi (Warren Kenton) decided, at the age of 82, that it was time for him to rest from this task. He announced that 2014 would be his final Summer School and this was very sad news for us all. There was a deep sense of gratitude and appreciation for the tradition that he has passed on to us so faithfully over the years. This he continues to do, with the support of his wife Rebekah.

Despite having to accept that it was the end of a remarkable era, many who attended expressed their wish to keep that annual space for the school to meet, study, meditate and enjoy the company of good companions. The Work goes on.

Warren had previously approached us to ask if we would be prepared to take over the running of the annual Summer School and we accepted, very aware of the great responsibility involved. Our intention is to continue to pass on the teaching of the Toledano Tradition, so clearly reformulated by Warren, and to make it applicable to everyday life.

During the four days, contemplation, slide lectures, guided imagery meditation and ritual will assist us to bring the principles to life through experience and reflection. The afternoon breaks will allow time for solitude, conversation, local trips or walks in the beautiful grounds and woods.
