INITIATIONS

PIVOTAL MOMENTS FOR CHANGE

A true initiation is a moment of conscious awakening - a new beginning. It comes through all manner of life experiences that awaken the soul.

During this day we shall examine the timing and nature of initiations from the perspective of the four worlds.

The physical cycle from birth to death presents us with challenges relating to family and society, relationships, ageing and death.

Psychological initiations pertain to the soul's development. A willingness to tread the path of honesty from "my will" to "Thy will" leads to a conscious understanding of personal fate.

At a spiritual level, initiations are about knowledge of the transpersonal, our destiny and the purpose for which we were called forth, created, formed and made.

A divine initiation is a profound experience of the deepest order; this lies at the heart of the mystic's quest.

The day will include an illustrated talk, meditation, a ritual, and time for questions.

The workshop will be led by Kurt Browne and Joanna Lapage-Browne on
