

Kabbalah and our Mind and Vision – 10th December 2022

In this workshop we will look at the Kabbalistic tradition of our Mind and our Vision. We will study the Tree of Awareness and with different meditations the relationship between the psyche (the Yetziratic Tree) and the Spirit (the Beriatic Tree) will be investigated. The Way of Contemplation and the training of the focus of the mind provide a clear method to connect to and experience the upper worlds.

We will also study the experience of our Vision externally and internally. Firstly exercises will be taught to help understand how the perception of our environment is intimately entwined with our Fate (the condition we came into this world with). Then guided internal meditations help us to develop our internal vision bringing us more into contact with the upper worlds. With practise we can stabilise these experiences gradually harmonising both the internal and external vision. This in turn can help develop our vision of our potential Destiny.
